

I am very disappointed to learn that the FCC is considering a proposal that would preempt the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. I to make it clear that I do not agree with any change that will lessen the protections the citizens of Indiana receive from this law. The law has eliminated unwanted phone solicitations. Our evenings are longer interrupted by these phone calls and I do not want this to change.